DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 16-20 and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 16-20 and 29 direct to data stored on a medium. Since the data neither providing functional relationship to the medium to control the medium to access stored information from the medium nor imparting to any structural software and hardware component to perform certain functions that is processed by a computer, the data does not make it statutory. See MPEP 2100.

Applicants argue that claim 16 now is reciting "an information medium configured to have data stored thereon and reproduced therefrom" in the preamble of claims to make the medium is stored the data. In response, it is noted that there is no means or circuit recited in the body of claims to record the data on the medium and reproducing the data on the medium therefore claim 16-20 and 29 direct to data resided on the medium. Further it is unclear how a medium itself can record and reproduce the data.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 25-28 and 30-33 are allowed over cited prior art.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
